STATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL'S OPPOSED ADMINISTRATIVE MOTION
TO SET HEARING ON MOTION FOR RELIEF

Judge: Hon. Yvonne Gonzalez Rogers

Magistrate Judge: Hon. Peter H. Kang

Pursuant to Civil L.R. 7-11, the State Attorneys General (AGs) move this Court to set a hearing on the AGs' Motion for Relief (Doc. 1168). As of October 4, briefing on the Motion is complete. See Response (Doc. 1181), Reply (Doc. 1194). In their Motion, the AGs requested oral argument collectively and on behalf of numerous individual State AGs. Doc. 1168, p. 4. Given the significant effect of the Order, a hearing on the motion is appropriate. Given the substantial burden the Order places on the AGs and non-party state agencies especially in light of Magistrate Judge Kang's denial of the AGs' motion for a stay (Doc. 1213), the AGs respectfully request a hard setting for this Motion on October 25—the next Case Management Conference. Alternatively, the AGs request a hearing date at the Court's earliest convenience thereafter. Because the AGs are subject to certain requirements to obtain approval for travel, the AGs respectfully request at least 7 days' notice, if the Court does not set the hearing for the next Case Management Conference, to ensure all states who have requested argument can be in attendance.

The AGs note Meta opposes argument generally and specifically opposes setting argument on October 25 because of a previously scheduled deposition in this case. But the October 25 Case Management Conference was scheduled before the deposition was set. Depositions will continue on most weekdays moving forward throughout the fact discovery period (including on all Case Management Conference dates for the remainder of 2024). And all parties have substantial legal teams working on this matter who can attend hearings and depositions occurring on the same day. Accordingly, the deposition should not be a barrier to hearing argument on this Motion at the October 25 Case Management Conference.

Dated: October 16, 2024

Respectfully submitted,
